

Quality Claims President Ron Reitz Recognized for Award of Quality in Media Relations

Prestigious Award Denotes Utmost Achievement

San Diego, CA, May 8, 2013– Quality Claims Management Corporation, a premier provider of customized insurance recovery solutions, today announced that President Ron Reitz was named as an award recipient for the Public Relations Society of America's Tri-Cities TN/VA Chapter. Reitz was honored with the "Award of Quality, Media Relations" for his participation in a Hurricane Sandy Outreach Campaign for the National Association of Public Insurance Adjusters (NAPIA). Reitz played a key role in this campaign through his strategic planning, press release work and numerous media interviews.

Reitz, who also serves as President of NAPIA, was acknowledged alongside NAPIA counsel Brian Goodman, Esq., NAPIA Marketing Chair Greg Raab, NAPIA NAIC Liaison Greg Serio, Esq., NAPIA Executive Director David Barrack and NAPIA Director of Communications and Events Marjorie Musick.

"It is a great honor to be awarded with such an esteemed acknowledgement," said Quality Claims President Ron Reitz. "Our desire to educate and assist those affected by Hurricane Sandy fueled our intensive media relations outreach."

NAPIA, headquartered in the Tri-Cities area, also won two additional Awards of Excellence from the PRSA Tri-Cities TN/VA Chapter, for Audio Visual Production and for Writing.
